Infinity Resorts Kanha, we take the meaning of luxury, comfort and service to an whole different level. Located adjacent to Kanha Tiger Reserve, the resort presents the beautiful jungles made famous by Rudyard Kipling's Jungle Book. Keep your eyes open for Sher Khan and Bhaloo on the jungle safaris and return to a resort with a standard of food,service and accommodation that it difficult to match.

Nestled on a sloping hillock, amidst thick Mahua and Mango trees, bamboo and shrubs, Infinity Resorts is built on 24 acres of lush green forest and grassland. This luxurious wildlife resort in Kanha, consists of 9 tented cottages and 10 villas, a reception building painted in the traditional light-blue colour reminiscent of a Gond dwelling and the huge Main Clubhouse building, with its red terracotta slopping roof, khaki walls and ethnic design blends perfectly into the natural surroundings.

19 tented accommodations in Kanha of 800 square feet each and of hexagonal shape, houses the bedroom, en-suite bath and a sit out deck. The luxurious and spacious bedrooms allow guests to indulge in the vibe of living like a nomad in the era of bygone days. Large panels of windows provide the feeling of being close to nature. Tribal paintings decorate the external wall while framed pictures of the various tribes of India are found on the interior walls. Completing the artisanal work are the inner linings of the tented ceiling - block printed with patterned Tigers.

Elevated and located at the centre of the resort, it is indeed the jewel on the crown. The 44-seater restaurant serves a selection of North and South Indian food, alternating with Chinese or Continental cuisines daily. Guests will be spoilt for choice and can enjoy the fantastic spread from our buffet or order à la carte meals for people with special diets. The architecture and interior décor are reminiscence of old colonial forest bungalows, and we feature both indoor, outdoor and poolside seating.
